

BUY MORE MERCH

Buying merchandise is the most direct way to support an artist. During Left of the Dial, bands can use our merchandise service, so they don't have to bring their own. This is especially beneficial for British bands due to the challenges posed by Brexit in transporting their merchandise. Do you want a logo on the sleeve of a green hoody? No problem, everything is print to order to give you a unique garment, and bands aren't stuck with unsold items. Environmentally friendly and profitable for artists. For real. Buy more merch.
