LEFT OF THE DIAL'S SCAVENGER HUNT

Before you start:

- Pick a team name. This can be your own name, or any other random name you want, as long as you stick to that one name, it's all good.
- Proof of all completed tasks must be emailed to scavengerhunt@leftofthedial.nl
- Subject of the mail should always be just your team name and nothing else.
- You can use separate emails for all tasks as long as always put your team name in the subject of every mail.
- Absolute deadline: Saturday 23.55h October 19th 2024.

Happy hunting!

WRITTEN TASKS
Answer all questions below. Send us the answers preferably in one email and be sure to use your team name as the subject of the mail.

Task 1
Schedules are always subject to change up until the very last minute, so please double check who's really playing the first official slot in Arminius on Thursday and let us know the name of the band/artist.

Task 2
All Left of the Dial artists have breakfast at the same spot called Figaro. It's located about 300 metres east from Rotown and has the best sandwiches in Rotterdam. They recently got a new sign on their store front, what does it say?

Task 3
V11, also known as 'the red boat' is one of the many spectacular venues hosting Left of the Dial. In what year was this lightship built?

Task 4
If you're a Left of the Dial ticketholder, you'll receive an email on Saturday. What is the subject of this email?

Taks 5
At the square in front of Arminius you'll find 'The Garden of Compliments', a project our intern came up with. How many mirrors are part of this project?

Task 6
Name one of the artists who is on stage both as a musician and as a participant of the Left of the Dial music conference.

Task 7
On the balcony of the building in between Rotown and Paradijskerk you can see three statues of which type of animal?

Task 8
During Left of the Dial, 160K not only serves two days of great music, they also serve Detroit style pizzas. What is the name of the first pizza on the menus on the tables?

Task 9
On Friday you can take a crash course in becoming a Rotterdammer. Which dance is taught to make you feel like a temporary local?

Task 10
Go to the Merch Minimart and politely ask any staff member for the secret Scavenger Hunt word. This word is the answer to the last written task.

PHOTOGRAPHICAL TASK
To complete the scavenger hunt you need to send in 5 specific photos. Please try to keep them on low resolution, but if those pictures exceed the MB limit, use separate emails each containing your team name in the subject line.

Photo 1
It doesn't matter whether you're a longtime or a first time Rotterdammer, your life in the city is not complete without a selfie with the infamous Buttplug Gnome. Please send us your happiest gnome-pic including at least one team member.

Photo 2
Ship ahoy! After the first trips of Bands on a Boat on Friday, you will slowly see more and more sailor hats appear in the city, so even if you're not aboard the ship, this shouldn't be too hard to do: take a photo of someone wearing an original Left of the Dial sailor hat. (Just be sure to ask permission, randomly photographing people is creepy!)

Photo 3
Some people hate them, some people feel Left of the Dial wouldn't be complete without them: the inflatable tube guys. Also known as sky dancers, wappermannen, or the waving wrestlers. Now, we don't want a snapshot of just any tube guy… look up and find the one that is placed on a tall building and take its picture.

Photo 4
Your fourth photo must include the following (both in the same shot!): a Left of the Dial wristband and a Rotterdam landmark. (Not the Buttplug Gnome again though, that would be too easy. Find another landmark please, we've got plenty of them.)

Music is what we're really here for, so please send us a photo of a musician on stage. We don't care whether it's during an official Left of the Dial show, or at a show at The Official Unofficial, as long as we recognize the musician in action, we'll consider your final photographical task completed!
